Game Changing Strategists Featured in San Diego Business Journal

J. Daniel Moody recently formed Game-Changing Strategists, a business consulting firm, bringing together several well-known independent business consultants. Moody will be the firm's sales, marketing and management strategist. Moody was the founder and principal of Fast Track Consulting Services.

Also joining the Game-Changing Strategists team are Derek Gresham, Brian Christie, Pat Harrison and Sam Johnson. Gresham has joined the firm as the finance and accounting strategist. He was formerly the chief financial officer for Mobile Systems Wireless in Carlsbad. Christie joins as the group's public relations strategist. Christie has been a news anchor with Fox 6 San Diego, KUSI and CNN. Harrison will be the operations and human resources strategist; he is also the principal of MPatrick Coaching, an executive coaching practice. Johnson has joined as the success training strategist; he is also the principal of ALC Performance Enhancement and Competitor Consulting.
